

Googan House
Rutland, Vermont

HABS No. VT-13

HABS
VT
11-RUT,
2-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Vermont

Historic American Buildings Survey
Arthur H. Smith, District Officer
Gryphon Bldg., Rutland, Vt.

GOOGAN HOUSE
Rutland, Rutland County, Vermont

Owner Evergreen Cemetery Association

Date of Erection C-1800

Architect Unknown

Builder Be^Aman

Present Condition This building is in very good condition at present both exterior and interior.

Rear part of building and side porches are not original, roof and window sash are also not original.

Number of Stories Two

Materials of Construction Foundation - Stone

Floors - Wood

Exterior Walls - Clapboards

Interior Walls - Lath and Plaster

Roof - Metal and slate surface shingles.

Additional Data The wall paper which is now in the hallway is believed to have been imported from England about 1812. French C. 1815

The above information was given by Mrs. Hollis Loveland, who is at present occupying the house.

Approved: Arthur H. Smith
District Officer.

W 1815